Pittsburgh, February 7, 1816. tf

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1816.

A letter from a member of the legislature at Harrisburgh, to a gentleman in this town, dated the 13th of February, states, that the bill authorising the erection of Bridges over the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers, had become a law—he gives no further details than that the state grants 40,00 dollars to each bridge; the site of the Monongahela bridge is at Smithfield street, the Allegheny bridge, at Robinson's Ferry.

He also states, that the bill for incorporating Pittsburgh into a city had passed the Senate, and there was no doubt but it would pass the House of Representatives, without opposition.

He thinks a law will be passed for building a poor house in Allegheny county.

The Louisville paper of the 12th inst. states the discovery of an extensive cave of Native Epsom Salt, or Sulphate of Magnesia, about 36 miles from that place, near the town of Corydon, (Indiana Territory.) The cave is apparently inexhaustible; salt, of every variety of crystal, is arranged in all that fanciful splendor which decorates the grotto of Antiparos. This cave is the only one known, where the pure salt in a solid form is found, excepting one in Monroe county, Virginia. In Europe, and particularly in England, at the Epsom springs, which give name to the salt, it is obtained from water impregnated with it.—We cordially hope that this native treasure will richly reward the chemical knowledge and enterprize of Doctors Burrell and Adams, who have the merit of analyzing and ascertaining this gentle and invaluable cathartick.

By the report of Mr. Patterson, Director of the Mint, to the President of the United States, it appears, that within the last year there have been struck at the mint, "in gold coins, 635 pieces, amounting to 3,175 dollars: in silver coins. 69, 232 pieces, amounting to 17,308 dollars; making in the whole, 69,867 pieces, amounting to 20,483 dollars." A fresh supply of copper having been received, the coinage of copper has been resumed, and the director expects to be able to coin annually 50 tons weight of copper, amounting to nearly 47,000 dollars. which will "supply in a great measure, the place of the small silver coins, which have almost totally disappeared."

The Secretary of the Treasury lately informed the House of Representatives, that of the Twenty Millions estimated as the current expense of the year, nearly Fourteen Millions and a half will be swallowed up by the Military Department.

On the 3d inst. after unparalleled debating, the House of Repsesentatives by a majority of 8 votes, decided against repealing the Direct Tax. It is now evident, that the report of the committee of ways and means, (which was lately published in this Gazette, and which is a mere echo of that of the Secretary of the Treasury) will be adopted throughout.

Marshal GROUCHY, who lately arrived at Baltimore from France, is at present at the City of Washington.

The Legislature of Maryland, at their late session, almost unanimously passed a resolution granting to Major General JAMES WILKINSON (lately of the army of the United States) in consideration of his revolutionary services, the half pay of a Colonel of Dragoons for life. This is said to be as high a pension as was ever granted by the Legislature.

INTERESTING EXTRACT

"———I charge thee fling away ambition,
By that sin, fell Angels; how can man then
The image of his Maker hope to win by it.
Corruption wins not more than honesty."

"The Republic of Florence affords an instance of the destructive effects of party spirit, and more particularly of family influence. The republic, the freest of all Italy. was divided into two parties. The Guelphs fondly attached to and jealous of the liberties of the people, always opposed themselves to the innovations of power, attempted by the Ghibbelines. And though frequent and animated contests mark the Florentine history, the progress of that Republic in commerce and the fine arts ranks it foremost, in that age when the light of science broke with splendour through monastic gloom. The family of the Medici, from respected merchants, became by their wealth and talents the most conspicuous citizens of Florence. Progressively they acquired an influence which controled all the functions of the State, until in the year 1475, they exercised power little short of sovereign.—Adepts in Italian politics, they participated in the intrigues of the surrounding principalities, and for the purposes of family aggrandisement, they involved their country in long and disastrous wars. It is not denied, that to this family belonged talents and dispositions which rendered them the boast of their country. They embellished their city with the noblest specimens of art, and gave that encouragement to literature which secured to them the happy fortune of Augustus, to be always celebrated by the scholar, and the wit. Powerful talents, like the brilliant element of fire, are useful when properly controlled, bnt terribly destructive, when suffered to range unchecked. When wealth and extensive family connexions are superadded, they become dangerous to public liberty. With all these advantages, the family of Medici subverted the liberties of their country, and have offered to subsequent Republics, a beacon to forwarn them of similar dangers."

"The Western Bank of Virginia."

I have recently seen a number of ten dollar notes in circulation, purporting to be notes of the Western Bank of Virginia. These notes are dated at Parkersburgh, and are signed by S. R. Wilson, president, and D. Blair, cashier. They are payable to R. W. Moore, or order, and are endorsed by him. The following facts respecting these notes are published for the information of the public.

The president during last summer was engaged in merchandize, in Marietta, and the cashier was employed by him as a clerk. They went to Pittburgh a few weeks past. Parkersburgh is situated on the Virginia side of the Ohio, at the mouth of the Little Kenhaway, 12 miles below Marietta. The people of that place knew nothing of the bank until they saw the notes in circulation.—There were neither stockholders nor bank house, at that place late in January. Notes were issued in Pittsburgh, and circulated to a considerable amount, about the first week of February and the week preceding. The president and cashier have since descended the river, with their bank in their saddle bags, it is supposed to establish themselves at Parkersburgh. This statement is published solely for the purpose of enabling the public to decide upon the credit due to the notes in question. It is proper to add, in this place, that the proposition in the Virginia legislature, to incorporate a bank at Parkersburgh, has been rejected in that body. Ohio. Fed.

[The gentlemen above named as President and Cashier, arrived at this place a few weeks ago; had the plate engraved, the notes printed; signed them at their lodgings, and put a very considerable sum into circulation. For a few days, until the plot was discovered, they had a general currency.]

The revenue.—The nett revenue from the imports accruing in 1815, is (as appears by a corrected report from the treasury of January 20) $ 28,348,898 80: exceeding the sum stated in the annual report by an amount of $ 3,348,837 02.

Singular Occurrence!—A stage between Philadelphia and Trenton lately took fire and was entirely consumed. It was occasioned by a passenger putting a hot brick on the floor of the stage to keep his feet warm; and what is most extraordinary, it burnt with such rapidity, that the passengers, six in number, with difficulty made their escape.

OFFICIAL ANNUNCIATION.

The National Intelligencer of yesterday contains a long editorial article on the subject of the Presidential Election, in which the writer enumerates those qualities or qualifications which he supposes ought to be possessed by a citizen to make him "competent to fill the office of the highest dignity in the nation; to obtain the largest bounty in the gift of the people." He then premises that there are many citizens who may justly claim all the necessary attributes, but only one can be selected. The writer declares his preference in favor of one about whom he asks a number of questions, among others the following.

Who is he who fleshed his maiden sword in 1776, and in 1814 displayed anew all the energy and spirit of his boyish days? To this and other questions, which no doubt are supposed equally indicative of the man, the answer is,

The man is JAMES MONROE.

What description of boyish energy and spirit Mr. Monroe displayed by fleshing his maiden sword in 1776, we are invited to judge of by the new display of it in 1814, at the battle. or rather, as it is more commonly called, the race near Bladensburgh; and we have not heard that he was then near enough to an enemy to flesh his maiden sword.

Whether the article was written by Mr. Madison or Mr. Monroe, or only submitted to them for approval, without which, it is to be presumed it would not have been published; it must be considered, from the decisive tone in which it is penned, as an official annunciation of the person who is selected to succeed Mr. Madison as President of the United States.—Balt. Fed. Gaz.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE SEVERAL BIBLE SOCIETIES IN THE UNITED STATES.

BRETHREN.—It is with peculiar pleasure that I once more address you on the interesting subject of extending the Redeemer's kingdom by means of the unlimited and gratuitous circulation of the Holy Scriptures.

From the most correct information that has lately been received, it has become evident that the demand for Bibles in the remote and frontier settlements of our country, is far beyond the resources of the several Bible Societies now existing in the United States.

An institution founded on a more extended plan, that will concentrate and direct the efforts of our numerous and increasing Bible Associations, seems at present to be the general wish of the friends of Revealed Truth. Such an institution has a powerful claim to the liberal support of the Christian public. This plan, which originated with the New Jersey Bible Society, has within the last year engaged the attention of the Board of Managers of the New York Bible Society.

Their resolutions, inserted below, contain the result of their deliberations on this important subject. A brighter day appears now to have dawned on our Western Hemisphere.

That the present effort may be rendered an efficient mean of salvation to many thousands of destitute poor in our own, and more distant lands, should be the wish and prayer of every sincere Christian.

And may the blessing of HIM who is "able to do for us abundantly more than we can either ask or think," give it complete success—unto whom be glory in the church, by JESUS CHRIST, throughout all ages—world without end."

RESOLUTIONS OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE NEW YORK BIBLE SOCIETY.

1st. Resolved, That it is highly desirable to obtain, upon as large a scale as possible a co-operation of the efforts of the christian community throughout the United States, for the efficient distribution of the Holy Scriptures.

2d. That as a mean for the attainment of this end, it will be expedient to have a convention of delegates from such Bible Societies, as shall be disposed to concur in this measure, at on the day of next, for the purpose of considering whether such a co-operation may be effected in a better manner, than by the correspondence of the different societies as now established; and if so, that they prepare the draft of a plan for such co-operation to be submitted to the different societies for their decision.

3d. That the secretary transmit the above resolutions to the President of the New Jersey Bible Society, as expressive of the opinion of this Board on the measures therein contained, at the same time signifying the wish of this Board, that he would exercise his own discretion in bringing the subject before the public.

In pursuance of the foregoing resolutions requesting me to designate the time and place at which the proposed meeting of delegates from the different Bible Societies in the United States shall take place; after mature deliberation and consulting with judicious friends on this important subject, I am decidedly of opinion that the most suitable place for the proposed meeting is the city of New York—and the most convenient time the second Wednesday of May next—and I do appoint and recommend the said meeting to be held at that time and place.

Should it please a merciful God to raise me from the bed of sickness, to which I am now confined, it will afford me the highest satisfaction to attend at that time, and contribute all in my power toward the establishment and organization of a Society, which, with the blessing of God, I have not the least doubt will in time, in point of usefulness be second only to the parent institution (the British and Foreign Bible Society)—will shed an unfading lustre on our Christian community, and will prove a blessing to our country and to the world.

ELIAS BOUDINOT,
President of the N. J. Bible Society.
Burlington, Jan. 31, 1816.

☞ The editors of Newspapers throughout the United States, who are friendly to the cause of revealed truth and human happiness, it is earnestly requested will insert the foregoing circular a few times in their respective papers, for the information of the Bible Societies within their several districts.

From the London Morning Chronicle, December 11.

Bonaparte did not send a single letter to Europe by the ship arrived from St. Helena, nor would he permit one of his companions to write: so that nothing can be known from themselves of their situation or their sentiments. Minutes of all Bonaparte's political conversations were carefully taken. It seems he spoke with great freedom of the characters and views of all the Potentates, as well as of their Ministers; and those minutes, which are considered truly important, are now in the hands of our Ministers. According to Bonapate's opinion the confederacy of the Allies was on the point of breaking at the eve of the battle of Waterloo; and if he had gained the ascendancy, would have been broken asunder in forty eight hours.

From the Catskill Recorder, Dec. 6.

Something Novel——or, the Devil outwitted. Some few days since, in the vicinity of a neighbouring village, a gentleman wishing to replenish his pocket, hit upon an unheard of expedient to effect his purpose. Dressing himself in all the costume of his Satanic majesty, such as horns, cloven feet, &c. and knowing when a Mr. R—— was to pass on the river, he posted himself in his way: the person was stopped, and saluted by his majesty with a demand for $ 1000, or suffer the immediate transportation of himself and family to the infernal regions. Mr. R——, after recovering from his surprise, the unavoidable consequence of a visit from so distinguished a personage, and after declaring his inability to comply with the demand at that moment, was suffered to depart, under a faithful promise to return the following night, at the same place and hour, and deliver the cash.

Mr. R—— applied to his neighbo

My dear Mr. S.

my age, I could not be precise to a day; bu

For this opinion, I will offer a reason, wh within a short time of each other, and being indigent circumstances, left me dependent o my own exertions, and the bounties of friend

a future essay. Let me also indulge a hop Mr. S. that I may see your abler pen employ upon this subject, with a view of giving a romantic pride, or adverse accidents, are d appointed of entering into that only relation life, which is calculated to lead the affection in the right channel, and expand the hum heart by procuring it natural objects of care an love. As to myself, it was from necessity th I engaged in active and maternal cares; b as I believe both my head and heart have be improved by it, I am anxious that others, wh are not compelled by the same necessity, shou be persuaded to profit by my example. Bu if after all my self-commendation, you shoul even numbered several years of my prime, an that I have thus far spent a life full of incident Still, I must confess, I do not find so muc encouragement in this undertaking, from an qualification of my own either natural or ac quired, as from the superior abilities of seve ral friends and relatives, with whom I ho strict correspondence, and from whom I sha frequently solicit contributions, which I sha always substitute for my own, when they seem entitled to preference. I will now conclud by noticing to you an odd conceit, which t moment presents itself to my mind. As al to that now proposed, from their infrequenc have never had a name, it seems to be arbitra with us to denominate it as we choose; and I do not at this time think of any denominatio more appropriate, I beg leave to suggest tha of sentimental marriage. If I understand object of matrimony, it is to unite two persons, a male and female, in such a league of interest and affection, that they have no longer but one heart and one soul. Now, though all the objects moral, political, and religious, which were originally taken into consideration in instituting this sacred alliance are not contemplated by us, yet, as we are jointly intent upon a certain purpose, we shall undoubtedly profit by the same union of heart and soul, as far as concerns that purpose. By the laws of matrimony, I should be entitled to take your name; since, however, you have but one, and that is a long one, I propose to divide it between us, giving you the Sched and myself the Iasm. Odd and fanciful as this name may seem, you need be under no apprehension that I shall quarrel with its initial, since it is I, and I am a woman. If you have a wife, Mr. S. pray conceal nothing from her; but assure her, that however closely we may unite in this sentimental wedlock, we shall ever remain personally strangers, and inviolably distinct; and as to the public, let them clearly understand, that though we share the same name, and unite in the same purpose, neither our names, nor our labours are to be confounded; on the contrary, it is never to be forgotten that you are S and I am I——.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 10.

The ship Hazard, Crabtree, 82 days from Barcelona, and 66 from Gibraltar, has arrived at Norfolk. Capt. Crabtree learned, just as he left Barcelona, that a letter had been received from Madrid, stating that appearances there were anti-pacific. Complaints and recriminations, had passed between the parties adverse to and in favour of the government, and it was expected by many that an open rupture would ensue.—The Province of Catalonia, and indeed most of the maritime Provinces of Spain, were very ill affected towards the government; duties were enormous on all importations, especially flour; fears of a revolt, it was said, had influenced the king to reduce the duty on flour from 4 1-2 to 2 1-2 per cent.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 9.

By the Coquette, from Santa Martha, we learn that, on the 10th Jan. news arrived at Santa Martha of the capture of Santa Fee by the royalists, amounting to 6000; they were opposed by 2000 patriots. Since the capture of Carthagena, gen. Morilla has kept the insurgent flag flying as a decoy to vessels entering the port; in consequence of which 11 vessels had entered after the fall—7 of which were Americans and 4 British—among the vessels named, were the schr. Swift, Hacket, of Baltimore, and a Baltimore schr. under the command of Capt. Almeda, all hands were made prisoners, closely confined and most barbarously treated, many of Americans had died in consequence of their brutal treatment.—An English frigate had sailed for Carthagena to alleviate the sufferings of their countrymen.

WEEPING BEAUTY.

FROM HOG'S QUEEN'S WAKE.

Is it a sprite that roams forlorn?
Or angel from the bowers of morn,
Come down, a tear of heaven to shed
In pity' o'er the valiant dead?

No vain, no fleeting phantom this!
No vision from the bowers of bliss!
Its radiant eye and stately tread
Bespeak some beauteous mountain maid;
No rose of Eden's bosom meek
Could match that maiden's moisten'd cheek,
No drifted wreath of morning snow,
The whiteness of her lofty brow;
Nor gem of India's purest dye,
The lustre of her eagle eye.

When beauty, Eden's bowers within,
First stretch'd the arm to deeds of sin;
When Passion burned, and Prudence slept,
The pitying angels bent and wept

But tears more soft were never shed,
No, not when angels bowed the head,
A sigh more mild did never breathe
O'er human nature whelmed in death,
Nor woe and dignity combine
In face so lovely, so benign.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE Subscribers have the pleasure to inform the public, that the drawing of the GRAND STATE LOTTERY will positively commence on Monday the 22d day of April next, and will be continued regularly to its close—that the scheme of the present class is considered much superior to either of the former ones, inasmuch as there is little more than one blank to a prize—a circumstance unprecedented; and in consequence of which the whole Lottery, or nearly so, would have been now sold—but for the uncertainty of drawing—owing to the indisposition of the Manager—this cause of delay happily no longer exists—and the day is fixed—from which no deviation has ever been made in the State Lottery. Tickets, therefore, must have rapid sale, and the price increased in proportion to their scarcity. At present whole Tickets may be had at eleven dollars—shares in proportion.

On the 1st day of March, Tickets will be $ 11 50, and on the first Monday in April, at $ 12.—Of this the public are respectfully apprised, that clubs and individuals may supply themselves at the lowest rate, which they can now do at any of the following offices:

Merchant Mills, a Woolen Factory, and One Thousand Acres of Land,

AT PUBLIC AUCTION,

On Monday the 1st day of April.

THE Subscribers, Executors of the last Will and Testament of ROBERT COLWELL, deceased, will expose to Public Sale on the Premises, the whole Real Estate of the deceased, lying in Brooke County, Virginia, to wit:—

Number I.

A FIRST RATE MERCHANT MILL, situated on Harmon's Creek, within two miles of Edgington's Warehouse on the Ohio, and in one of the best settlements for obtaining Wheat in the Western Country. The Mill House is large, four stories high and commodiously apportioned—is worked by an excellent stream, with a fall of 18 feet, runs two pair of French Burrs, and is calculated for four—supplied with two stand of Elevators, Hopper-boy and Bolts of the best construction. The Mill House and all the considerable Machinery are entirely new. Convenient to the Mill is a large Stone House erected for a Distillery.

Number II.

A MERCHANT MILL,

situated on the same stream adjoining, has a fall of 14 feet, runs one pair of French Burrs, and a pair of Country Stones, with a Distillery.

Number III.

A CLOTHIERY.

This establishment comprehends a Fulling Mill and appurtenances in complete order. CARDING MACHINES, SPINNING MACHINES, &c.

Attached to this property is a new and EXCELLENT SAW MILL.

To these three establishments there pertains an aggregate of about seven hundred acres of Land, which will be apportioned to them severally, or sold in distinct lots as may (at the time of Sale) be considered most advantageous to the purchaser. The adjacency of these premises to the Ohio River, to the flourishing Town of Steubenville and to Charleston, the great mart of the Flour Trade in the Western Country, gives them an importance and value which pertains to but few situations in the country. There are on these premises, besides a valuable TAVERN STAND, twelve or fifteen Dwelling Houses, suitable for and now occupied by superintendants, Mechanics, Labourers, &c. Also, an extensive Frame Smith Shop, with three fires, and a good Dwelling House attached to it.

Number IV.

A TRACT OF LAND ON HARMON'S CREEK within two miles of No. 1, and four miles from Steubenville, containing 100 acres, part of which is bottom, having an Orchard, Meadow, Distillery, Houses, &c. and a Mill Seat.

Number V.

100 ACRES OF LAND ON THE SAME CREEK,

3 miles from No. 1, and similar to No. 4, in quality and improvements.

ALSO—A SAW MILL.

Number VI.

200 ACRES OF FIRST RATE UPLAND on the great road from Pittsburgh to Steubenville, six miles from the latter place, and three from No. 1, having sixty acres cleared and fenced, an Orchard, Dwelling House, &c.

The Sale will commence on Monday the 1st day of April, and continue from day to day until completed.

Terms, one-third of the purchase money will be required in hand, the residue in instalments of one, two and three years.

There will also, be sold at the same time, a correct BLACK MAN, for a term of years.

WILLIAM LEE,
JOHN EDGINGTON,
DANFORTH BROWN,
OLIVER BROWN, Jr. } Executors.

To Journeymen Carpenters.

WANTED immediately, FIFTY or TEN JOURNEYMEN CARPENTERS, who will engage for Eight Months—to such generous wages will be given. Apply to

HENRY HOLDSHIP,
House Carpenter, Pittsburgh.

February 24, 1816

TO RENT,

And possession given the first of April next.

TWO BRICK TENEMENTS, in a healthy and pleasant situation. Likewise, FOR SALE, a number of BUILDING LOTS, 30 feet front by 110 feet in depth, in the Borough of Pittsburgh, suitable for Mechanics and others with small families. For terms apply to ANDREW WATSON, on Grant's Hill.

February 20, 1816.

A STRAY HORSE,

OF a dark bay colour, supposed to be 12 years old, and about 14 hands high, broke into the inclosure of the subscriber, in Pitt township, Allegheny county, one mile from Pittsburgh, and done considerable damage.—The owner is desired to come, prove property, pay charges, and take him away.

JOHN WALTER.

February 17, 1816.

TO LET,

THE Subscriber having a prospect to leave Pittsburgh, offers on LEASE the HOUSE he now occupies in Wood Street, opposite the WESTERN HOTEL, being an established stand for a STORE, attached to a commodious well finished Dwelling, with good Cellars, Back Buildings, Stabling, &c. Possession may be had on or before the first of April next. For terms apply on the premises to

WILLIAM SEMPLE.

Pittsburgh, February 9, 1816.

STRAY COW.

CAME to the plantation of the Subsciber in Versailles township, Allegheny county, some time in the month of October, a Black and White COW, with a piece off both horns, very poor, appears old, and gives no milk; no brand nor ear mark discoverable; has a middling short tail. The owner is requested to come, prove property, pay charges, and take her away.

ARCHIBALD JOHNSTON.

February 9th, 1816.

TO LET,

A Store completely shelved, with a large and convenient Counting Room and good Cellar, situate on the north west side of the Diamond, lately in the occupancy of Messrs. C. Pentland & Co.

Also, a large Frame Building, situate on Diamond Alley. It would answer well for a Livery Stable or Ware House. Apply to A. HILL, or to WILLIAM HILL, S. E. Corner of Market and Fourth Streets.

COLUMBIAN STEAM ENGINES.

THE PITTSBURGH STEAM ENGINE COMPANY,

BEG leave to inform their friends and the Public generally that their establishment is now in complete operation and consists of a

STEAM ENGINE FACTORY,

for furnishing Steam Engines on Oliver Evans's construction, which daily experience is proving to be the cheapest and most powerful.

AN AIR FOUNDERY,

on an extensive scale, capable of furnishing castings of any description, but particularly adapted to machinery.

AN ANVIL AND ANCHOR FACTORY, capable of furnishing anvils and anchors of the largest size.

A BRASS FOUNDERY,

calculated for general castings, but particularly for machinery and large bells, which will be warranted of the first quality.

A BUTT-HINGE FACTORY,

will also shortly be in operation, on a scale sufficiently large to supply any demand. It is also intended to supply small castings annealed.

A PATTERN MAKER'S SHOP, AND A BORING AND TURNERS SHOP.

The lathes are driven by the force of steam; and all orders in the different branches of turning Iron, Brass, Wood, &c. will be executed with dispatch.

They also carry on the business of

SCREW MAKING,

and are prepared to furnish Rolling and Slitting Mill, Paper Mill, Fullers, Tobacco and Millstone Screws, &c.

The Pittsburgh Steam Engine Company flatter themselves that the nature and extent of their establishment, will enable them to furnish any article in the mechanical line particularly, on as short and as favorable terms as any establishment in the state.

They have on hand a STEAM ENGINE, sufficiently powerful to grind from 20 to 25 bushels of Wheat per hour, in the best manner. Also, a number of Paper Mill, Fullers, and Mill Screws, and Sugar Mill apparatus.

DOCTOR CHISHOLM'S
Anti-Bilious Pills,

Of a quality superior to any thing of the kind ever offered as a GENERAL MEDICINE, in this Country.

NOW prepared from a recipe of the celebrated Dr. Chisholm, who, from a long residence in the West-India Islands, has been enabled to favor the world with the most complete history, and most approved methods of curing all the BILIOUS DISEASES of those warm climates.

This extraordinary Medicine, which now for the first time is finding its way into general practice, has properties in the highest degree superior to the mercurial nostrums so frequently recommended by the name of Anti-Bilious Pills. The extraordinary powers of this medicine as a solvent and evacuent of Bile, is without example; never producing debility or injuring the health, in the smallest degree, of the most delicate child or weakly female.

The BILIOUS HEAD-ACHE, so much complained of in this country, and in the neighbourhood of rivers, is often removed by a single dose, which, to a strong man, is only five pills, and to a weakly woman, three. The same dose will generally remove the most excruciating pains of the cholic, like a charm, by abusing the bile to pass downwards in the course of an hour or two.

Two or three Pills taken an hour before dinner, and repeated every third day, will effectually remove those diseases arising from flatulency and indigestion, and by persevering in the use of them for a considerable time, the appetite will be improved, and strength and vigor will return.

Two Pills taken at bed time, with a cup of penny-royal tea, and repeated every second night, will effectually remove Rheumatic pains wherever seated.

A single Pill, taken every fourth hour with a cup of flaxseed tea, will cure Pleurisy, promote expectoration, and relieve coughs and colds.

In CONSUMPTIVE CASES and DISEASES OF THE LIVER, no medicine ever yet discovered, has been known to perform such cures. Two Pills taken every third morning, will be found sufficient, unless costiveness prevails; in which case the dose may be increased according to the strength or constituton.

The Dysentery, Croup, and Summer Complaint on children, are soon relieved by a few doses. A single Pill to a child of 6 years old, and the dose increased according to the strength and age.

In Asthmatic or Phthisical cases, where the laborious breathing and great oppression, with faintings, are fast sinking the patient to the brink of the grave, a few Pills, taking one every hour, with fennel or pepper-mint tea, will often enable the patient to walk about in a few hours.

The above valuable Medicine is Sold
